

Alessandra Piccinino

Was born in Naples on 31 August 1962. In 1985 he graduated with honors in Economics and Commerce from the University of Naples with a thesis on the transfer of technology in International Law. In 1987 he obtained a Master in Advanced European Studies, with a specialization in Economic Studies, at the College of Europe in Bruges (Belgium). He has a career of over 25 years in corporate finance, most of which in an American corporation listed on the NYSE, The Dow Chemical Company, holding positions of international standing. From 2012 to date, he has taken on positions as a Board Member, as well as a member or chairman of board committees in some of the main Italian companies, including Ansaldo STS S.p.A., American School of Milan, Italgas Reti S.p.A. and Mediaset S.p.A. Since 2018 he has been the director of Pierrel.