

Mauro Fierro

Was born in Naples on 18 January 1960. In 1982 he graduated in law from the University of Naples Federico II and in 1989, at the same university, he obtained a specialization diploma in commercial law. He has been enrolled in the Naples Bar registry since 1988, being authorized to practice before the Higher Courts. An expert in corporate, banking and bankruptcy law, he assists primary public and private entities in both judicial and extrajudicial settings.

He collaborated, immediately after graduation, with Professor Gian Franco Campobasso, former full professor of commercial law at the University of Naples Federico II, carrying out research and dealing with the publication of numerous scientific contributions in various specialist journals and collective works. He is a member of the Commission on “corporate law” established by the Council of the Naples Bar and since 2000 he has been a professor of European Union commercial law at the University of Molise. He has also taught at the Specialization Schools for Legal Professions of the Suor Orsola Benincasa University of Naples, the Seconda Università di Napoli and the University of Molise.
