

Raffaele Petrone

Was born in Naples on 2 January 1965. In 1986 he graduated in pharmacy from the University of Naples Federico II. He has been a member of the order of pharmacists since 1987. From 1982 to 1997 he dealt with the development of family businesses, in particular at the pharmacies of the Petrone Group. From 1997 to today, he has developed the activities of the Petrone Group through acquisitions and strategic re-organizations in the fields of pharmaceutical production, distribution, trading, consultancy and logistics. Since 1999 he has been the Chief Executive Officer of Fin Posillipo S.p.A., the holding company of the Petrone group with responsibility for the group's strategic investments and development area. From 1997 to 2007 he was Chief Executive Officer and member of the board of directors of Hospira Italia S.p.A. (formerly F.H. Faulding & Co Ltd, later Mayne Pharma), an Italian subsidiary of the Australian group of the same name, world leader in hospital antiblastic drugs.

He is a member of the board of directors of several companies which operate in partnership with the Petrone group; moreover, in the period between 2007 - 2008, he held the position of Vice President of EAEPC - European Association of Euro-Pharmaceutical Companies - an association representing 70 pharmaceutical companies in 20 European countries. In 2008 he joined the Board of Directors, today holding the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors, and from 2013, until February 2017, he was Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of THERAMetrics holding AG (today Relief Therapeutics Holding AG), a company whose shares are listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange.